DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Liao et al. (Liao; US 5,590,186; cited and applied for the first time).

Refer to Fig. 1 of Liao where the claimed invention reads on Liao as follows. The first central office reads on the LEC CO 24 of Liao. The first call processing node reads on the TERMINATING SWITCH 62. The claimed communication device reads on ADJUNCT PROCESSOR 34. Liao plainly teaches the claimed VRU. The second call processing node reads on the TERMINATING SWITCH 74.

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Art Unit: 2642

4. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by McAllister et al. (McAllister; US 6,442,242 B1; cited and applied for the first time).

The applied reference has a common inventor and assignee with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

Refer to Fig. 1 of McAllister where the claimed invention reads on McAllister as follows. The first central office of claim 1 and the central office of claim 3 read on the TELEPHONE SWITCH 70 of McAllister. The first call processing node of claims 1 and 3 reads on the PBX 10. The claimed communication device reads on the IP 78; refer to column 5, lines 24 – 31. McAllister plainly teaches the claimed voice recognition capabilities. The second call processing node of claim 2 reads on the VOICE PROCESSOR 20/BRIDGE 50. And the second network of claim 3 is inherent since PBX 10 is a separate private network. The second network can also read on the INTERNET 28.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 2642

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 and 3 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
